

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

See how Fabrik Force conducts the recruitment process

Support

We will closely monitor the candidates' progress and performance in their as signed, ensuring seamless communication between them and our clients

Preparation

We receive requests from customers, job description is required, confirming and discussing with customers to fully understand the capabilities and specific requirements that needed

Office Set Up

Considering our clients' plans and requests, we will arrange suitable office spaces for the candidates in our Vietnam office and supply all the necessary equipment.

Find Candidates

In this phase, we will post recruitment posts on reputable Vietnamese recruitment sites. We will diligently seek out potential candidates who meet the necessary qualifications and criteria outlined by our clients

Interview

We will conduct face-to-face interviews at the Vietnam office. If the customer wants to have an online interview with the candidate, please note it while sending the request. We will create an online meeting.

Recruitment

Once we have identified promising candidates, we will meticulously screen them based on predetermined criteria, then we will conduct a phone interview. This will enable our clients to make informed decisions with ease.

For more information, please contact us at info@fabrik-force.com